WOMAN DISCOVERED THE CRIME IN LONELY SPOT.

Wound on the Victim's Head Shows How He Was Killed—Coroner Trying to Trace the Slayer.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BELLPORT, L. I., Nov. 10.—Thomas Mangle, a resident of this place, while going through the woods at North Bellport early to-day found Michael Bango lying dead on a path that skirted a thicket.

There was a wound on the man's head and the Sheriff's men who were summoned concluded that Bango had been waylaid by a thug.

The dead man was a junk dealer and known to have considerable money which he always carried with him.

The case has been declared a murder and the coroner is trying to trace the slayer.

REV. L. J. EVERS SAILS.

Waken to Paris Resolutions of the Eucharistic Congress.

Rev. L. J. Evers, rector of St. Andrew's Church, at Duane street and City Hall Place, sailed to-day on the French liner La Touraine, to present to the Cardinal-Archbishop and the other archbishops who are soon to assemble in Paris the resolutions passed by the recent Eucharistic Congress.

The Congress appointed a committee to draw up a set of resolutions in sympathy with the religious bodies of the Roman Catholic Church in France and expressing commendation for the attitude of the government toward Catholicism. These resolutions are taken abroad by Father Evers.

Others sailing were: Mrs. D. Andrews, Charles P. Bowen, Charles Edwards, Cecil Harper, Judge Pagnuolo, Howard Taylor and Miss Flora Zabelo, the actress.

DIRECTED HIS OWN RESCUE

Man Caught in Elevator Wheels Told Men How to Get Him Out.

George Foundworth, of No. 1053 Boulevard avenue, Brooklyn, was removed to the Hudson Street Hospital by Dr. Stone to-day suffering from a compound fracture of the left leg below the knee.

He was repairing the elevator car, which had stuck at the eighth floor in the Eagle Building, and was on the roof of the car when the leg became caught in some wheels and ropes.

Foundworth's screams started the "bell" girls who work in the "Franklin" exchange on the eighth floor. An ambulance surgeon who was summoned could not extricate the engineer. Other persons were sent for, and they, under the engineer's direction, as he lay bleeding and mangled, disintegrated him. When his release was accomplished he died.

SHOOT HIMSELF IN HOTEL CHAIR

Michael Masterson Found with Bullet Hole in Temple—Employee Hears Shot and Calls Ambulance.

EXPIRES BEFORE THE PHYSICIAN ARRIVES.

Suicide Entered Hostelry Quietly, Evidently with Intention of Ending Life—Sister Says He Had Been Ill Lately.

With blood flowing from a wound in his right temple, Michael Masterson, a well-dressed, elderly man, was discovered dying early to-day in the rear room of the Atlantic Hotel, Atlantic avenue and Smith street, Brooklyn.

In his right hand was a revolver, and the indications are that the man committed suicide, although the police are not thoroughly satisfied on that point.

The report of the revolver shot attracted the attention of the bartender, who says he went into the room and found the man calmly sitting in a chair. When an ambulance arrived the man was dead.

In the pockets of the dead man was an envelope addressed "M. Masterson, No. 134 Raymond street, Brooklyn," also $20 and $5.

The dead man weighed about 200 pounds, and it is believed he slipped into the hotel through a side door for the express purpose of ending his life in a quiet place.

Masterson lived at No. 134 Raymond street with his sister. He left the house early this morning. His sister said he has been ill of late and in great trouble. He acted as if demoralized, claiming that he was pursued by men who wanted to kill him.

CALLER LIAR BY COURT.

Magistrate Crane Also Accused Police Officer of Being Intoxicated.

Patrolman Joseph Walsh, of the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station, in the Harlem Court to-day was reprimanded by Magistrate Crane and accused not only of being intoxicated but also of lying. Walsh had arrested John Hastings, of 611 East One Hundred and Sixty-seventh street, a bartender, whom he accused of assaulting him. Lawyer Benjamin Baker appeared for Hastings.

"Did you have anything to drink this morning?" Baker asked Walsh.

Walsh said he had not, but later admitted that he had been in a saloon where he drank ginger ale.

"What was in that ginger ale?" Magistrate Crane asked.

"Nothing," Magistrate Crane looked at Walsh, who is a now man on the force, and said:

"Officer, you are lying to me. You are drunk now. I advise you to keep out of my mills hereafter." Hastings said Walsh, while in the saloon, broke a window and when Hastings exhaustedly arrested him. He was discharged.

Hale and Hearty at 103 Years

Johann Arnold, Who is 103, Says Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Cured Him When His Stomach Refused to Retain Any Other Medicine.

Duffy's Increases His Digestive Powers and Strengthens His Weakened Nerves.

JOHANN ARNOLD.

Reading, Penn., March 15, 1904. Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure in my old age to testify to the benefits I am deriving from the judicious use of your Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I am now 103 years old, hale and hearty, have a good appetite and perfect digestion. I have tried a number of wines and whiskeys for their stimulating effect, but my stomach would not retain them. Your pure whiskey agrees with my stomach perfectly. It is retained by my stomach and produces a mild stimulation, which my condition at this age demands. It is certainly a godsend to the aged, who need a stimulant to tone up their stomachs, increase their digestive powers and strengthen their weakened nerves. Sincerely yours,

JOHANN ARNOLD.
